In accordance with the principles established by the 2023 Annual General Meeting and the Swedish Corporate Governance Code, the Election Committee has been mandated to draw up proposals on the following issues to be presented at the Company's 2024 Annual General Meeting:

- election of Chairman to preside over the Annual General Meeting,
- election of the Chairman and other Board members of the Company's Board of Directors,
- resolution regarding directors' fees, divided between the Chairman and the other Board members, and any remuneration for committee work,
- election of and fees to the auditor, and
- resolution on amendments to the instructions for the Election Committee.

The Election Committee has held five (5) recorded meetings and maintained regular communications between the meetings.

When preparing its proposal, the Election Committee has applied rule 4.1 of the Swedish Corporate Governance Code as its diversity policy. This entails that the Election Committee has had as a starting point that the Board of Directors shall have an appropriate composition with regard to the Company's operations, stage of development and circumstances in general, characterised by diversity and breadth in terms of the competence, experience and background of the members elected by the Annual General Meeting. An even gender ratio shall be sought.

The Election Committee also considers it important that the Board members are able to devote the time and care required to carry out their duties as Board members of the Company, and the Election Committee has therefore evaluated the Directors' assignments outside the Company and the time required for these assignments.

The Election Committee has received a report from the Chairman of the Board on how the work of the Board has been carried out. The Election Committee has interviewed the Board of Directors and its overall assessment of the work of the Board shows that the Board functions well.

The Election Committee has discussed the size and composition of the Board in relation the Company's current situation and development opportunities. The Election Committee is of the opinion that the qualifications of the Board are satisfactory. The aim of the Election Committee has been to maintain the Board's diversity and breadth.

In preparing its proposals regarding the election of auditor and the resolution regarding auditor fees, the Election Committee has been in contact with the Chairman of the Audit Committee in order to obtain the Board's and Audit Committee's assessment of the quality and efficiency of the auditor's work. The Election Committee's proposals for the election of auditor and resolution regarding auditor fees are in line with the recommendation of the Audit Committee.

The Election Committee's assessment of the proposed composition of the Board of Directors

According to the Election Committee, the proposed Board of Directors constitutes an appropriate composition with regard to the Company's operations, stage of development and other circumstances, characterised by versatility and breadth in terms of the proposed Board members' competence, experience and background. The Election Committee's proposal regarding the Board of Directors entails that 33 per cent of the Board members elected by the General Meeting would be women and 67 per cent of the Board members elected by the General Meeting would be men. The Election Committee is continually striving to achieve greater equality in terms of gender on the Board of Directors. Further, the Election Committee is of the opinion that the proposed Directors have sufficient time to carry out their duties as Directors of the Company.

The Election Committee's assessments of the independence of the proposed Board members

Taking into account the applicable Swedish rules regarding independence, the Election Committee has made the following assessment of the independence of the proposed Board members in relation to the Company and the Company's management and in relation to the Company's major shareholders:

- All of the proposed Board members are independent in relation to the Company and the Company's management.
- All of the proposed Board members except from Johan Sjö and Johan Lilliehöök are independent in relation to the Company's major shareholders. Johan Sjö and Johan Lilliehöök are not independent since they are employees of the Company's largest shareholder, Nordstjernan.

The Election Committee's assessment of the proposed directors' fees

The Election Committee believes it is important that the directors' fees (including the fees for committee work) amounts to a level that makes it possible to recruit and retain Directors with a high level of competitive competence to the Board of the Company. The Election Committee has interviewed the Chairman of the Board regarding the scope and complexity of the Board's work and compared the Company's directors' fees with the directors' fees in comparable companies listed on Nasdaq Stockholm. In light of this, the Election Committee has concluded that the proposed directors' fees and fees for committee work are reasonable compared with companies of equivalent size and complexity.

1. Election Committee members

The Company is to have an Election Committee. Election Committee members are to be nominated by the major shareholders in the Company, whereby the four largest shareholders in the Company, in terms of votes according to the shareholders' register maintained by Euroclear Sweden on the final banking day in February, are entitled to nominate one member each. However, the Company shall not be obliged to consult more than five additional shareholders. The shareholder controlling most votes in the Company is entitled to nominate the Chairman of the Election Committee. - b) A shareholder who has not nominated a member of the Election Committee becomes larger in terms of votes than a shareholder who has nominated a member of the Election Committee, after which the larger shareholder is entitled to replace the nominated member, or if other significant changes occur in ownership of the Company, whereby the Election Committee has the right to make an independent decision to dismiss and/or appoint additional members with the aim that the composition of the Election Committee shall reflect the ownership structure of the Company.
